

History Presentation Project

- Working in pairs
- Each group covers one important conflict from the list
- Must provide a study guide and short presentation (could include ppt or other form of visual aid) (20 min)
- For each topic, study guide will include:
 - Key vocab
 - Summary of key info in own words
 - Photos and graphs
 - 6 review questions
 - List of sources in proper APA format
- Study guides to be handed in the week before presentations to be uploaded to server/class webpage
- Presentations should not just be reading the study guide/ppt

Topics

- Arab-Israeli War of 1948
- First Indochina War
- Six Day War
- Angolan Civil War
- Nicaraguan Civil War
- Cuban Revolution
- Greek Civil War
- Rhodesian Bush War
- Prague Spring
- Cambodian Civil War
- Yom Kippur War
- Lebanese Civil War
- Iranian Revolution
- Russian Invasion of Afghanistan
- First Gulf War

Important things to include:

- when and where
- who is fighting
- who is backing each side (if anyone)
- what does each side want
- key events of the conflict
- end results of the conflict –how did it end, who won, what changed
- maps and pictures
- citations

When do presentations begin? June 5

When are study guides due? June 2

Steps to follow

Collect Data

What do you need to know?

Where will you find your info?
(APA citations!)

Process and sort your data

What information is significant?

What does your audience need to know?

Production

Organize and present your info in an easy-to-understand way

Include supporting images and references

Presentation

Determine who will present what information

Create and submit guide/ ppt